

DOONBANK SALMON FISHING SYNDICATE

Membership is by invitation of the owner, but may be terminated by the owner without a refund of fees paid, if in the owner's opinion, the member's rule breaking or behaviour merit expulsion from the syndicate. The owner's decision is final.

Fishing is from the Old Railway Bridge in Alloway to the top of Mount Charles Weir.

Membership runs from 1st June - 31st October each year.

Annual cost for your day throughout the season is £250 per year payable by 1st April each year.

Non-payment by 1st April will mean expulsion from the syndicate.

3 rods will be let along with 1 house rod each day for 6 days, therefore letting 18 day rods per week.

Rules

The member must carry his or her permit, which is non transferrable.

Fishing is from 8am - dusk

Fly, spinning and worm fishing only. No shrimp or prawn.

Spinning lures should have no more than one hook.

Should there be more than one person on a pool, you must keep moving with each cast.

No dogs, litter, fires or swimming.

No standing on the weir fishing into the top dam beat.

All fish must be handled carefully, returned, and reported by text to the owner on a daily basis, stating who caught it, which pool, weight, sex and condition of fish. If a fish has to be killed or is dead it must be passed into the owner.

It may be necessary to amend the rules during the course of a season.

Parking is on Glenalla Crescent, care should be taken to avoid getting in householders' way.

Application for membership should be made in writing to:

D. Cosh, 35 Greenfield Avenue, Ayr. KA7 4NR.

Favour will be given to Saturday rods who also have another day.
